

DPM Metals Announces Martin Horgan as Nominee to the Board of Directors and 2026 Annual Meeting Date

Toronto, Ontario, April 8, 2026 – DPM Metals Inc. (TSX: DPM, ASX: DPM) (ARBN: 689370894) (“DPM” or “the Company”) announced the nomination of Martin Horgan as a candidate for election to its Board of Directors. Mr. Horgan, along with a slate of seven returning directors, will be standing for election at the Company’s 2026 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will be held on Wednesday, May 6, 2026, at 11 AM EDT.

“We are pleased to nominate Martin Horgan as a candidate for election to our Board of Directors. His extensive experience building and operating gold assets, including the Mako mine in Senegal and the Sukari gold mine in Egypt, will further strengthen the Board’s oversight as we advance our development pipeline and growth strategy,” said Juanita Montalvo, Chair of the DPM Board of Directors.

Martin Horgan is a mining engineer with extensive international operational and leadership experience in gold exploration, project development, and large-scale mining operations. A co-founder of Toro Gold Ltd., Mr. Horgan led the discovery, development, and operation of the Mako mine in Senegal prior to its acquisition by Resolute Mining in 2019. He most recently served as Chief Executive Officer of Centamin Plc from 2020 to 2024, overseeing the Sukari gold mine and the company’s acquisition by AngloGold Ashanti. Since January 2025, he has served as a Director of TGT Minerals Ltd, a private Jersey-based investment holding company focused on early-stage exploration projects in West Africa.

The slate of eight directors standing for election at the Annual Meeting are:

- Dr. Nicole Adshead-Bell
- Robert M. Bosshard
- Jaimie Donovan
- Martin Horgan
- Kalidas Madhavpeddi
- Juanita Montalvo
- David Rae
- Marie-Anne Tawil
